ABOUT WHEN HARLEM SAVED A KING

When Harlem Saved a King is a 90 minute Documentary produced by JIREH Management Group Productions. When Harlem Saved A King will tell a story not known by many Americans both young and not-so-young. It is a laser-focus examination of the events leading up to and following September 20, 1958, the day Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. was stabbed in the chest with a letter opener by a black woman named Izola Ware Curry. The stabbing occurred during Dr. King's first book signing, "Stride Towards Freedom: The Montgomery Story" at a Jewish department store in Harlem on 125th Street. When Harlem Saved a King will take viewers back to 1958 in a 48 hour style mystery to both engage and educate the audience while exploring the answers to the questions: Who was Izola Ware Curry and, what happened to her after the assassination attempt? Was there a conspiracy to kill Dr. King? Could the stabbing have an effect/impact on the Civil Rights Movement? What would have happened had Dr. King sneezed?

PROJECT GOALS & OBJECTIVES

When Harlem Saved A King looks to educate a generation on a crucial part of history not commonly known to many while simultaneously strengthening the community at-large and inspiring future leaders

By engaging in a panel discussion and in-depth Q&A with the researcher, film directors, and key individuals directly involved in this historic event, the audience will have a first hand account to further understand the events of the 1958 stabbing and the impact it could have had on the Civil Rights Movement.

MENTAL ILLNESS

- 1 in 5 Adults have a mental health condition. That's over 40 million Americans; more than the populations of New York and Florida combined.
- Youth mental health is worsening. Rates of youth with severe depression increased from 5.9% in 2012 to 8.2% in 2015. Even with severe depression, 76% of youth are left with no or insufficient treatment.
